

Dear all,

Please note that the USF Seminar Series Awards call is now live, with a deadline of 22nd December.

If you could share this with interested parties it would be much appreciated!

Additionally, it has also done the rounds via the usual email lists and other platforms, and will appear on others in the coming days and weeks. Other interested parties (e.g. last round runners-up and Ronan's colleagues) have also been emailed individually.

Best wishes,

Joe
